Please find below and/or attached an Office communication concerning this application or proceeding.

If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire 6 MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.

Office Action Summary	Application No. 10/784,727	Applicant(s) TRAVIESO ET AL.
	Examiner Sana Al-Hashemi	Art Unit 2164

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 1 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is issued in response to applicant amendment filed 11/15/06.
2. Claims 1-35 were canceled. Claims 36-79, were added. No Claims were amended.
3. Claims 36-79 are subject to restriction requirement.

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 36-72, and 74 drawn to generating a data structure, classified in class 707, subclass 102.
 - II. Claims 73, drawn to data manipulation classified in class 707, subclass 104.1, classified in class 707, subclass 104.1.
 - III. Claims 75-79 drawn to data accessing classified in class 707, subclass 9.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reason:

Inventions II, III, and I, are related as combination and subcombinations.

Inventions I, II and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination or at least inventions which could be used in the same environment note some of the dependent claims are related to the environment The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as the requesting of dividing the content into component, generating identifier for each component and identifying a translated component corresponds to a translatable component based on an identifier, it does not need the require the method of identifying one or more component in a second language corresponding to a component in a first language and presenting the component in the second language and sending the component in the second language to the requester as claimed in Group II or the content accessing as claimed in Group III. Likewise the identifying one or more component in a second language corresponding to a component in a first language and presenting the component in the second language and sending the component in the second language to the requester of Group II has separate utility from the specific method requesting of dividing the content into component, generating identifier for each component and identifying a translated component corresponds to a translatable component based on an identifier Group I, and the content accessing of Group III. Similarly, invention III has separate utility such as content accessing of claim III, has utility in a general search system not requiring the key elements of Group I and II. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

A telephone call was made to Steve Becker on February 13, 2007 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of ir/vent6fship must be accompanied-by a request under37-CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
